Screen Capital acquires Nino Labinteriör AB

On June 23, Screen Capital acquired Nino Labinteriör AB. Nino Labinteriör develops and manufactures high-tech products and solutions in advanced protective ventilation, LAF equipment and incubators, heating and climate cabinets for customers in research, industry, hospitals and pharma. The company was founded in 2013 and has had strong growth since then. Nino Labinteriör is one of the leading manufacturers in Scandinavia and sales are increasing rapidly in the rest of Europe as well. For the financial year 2020/2021, sales are estimated to amount to approximately SEK 65 million with an EBITDA of approximately SEK 13 million. The business is conducted in Kungsbacka and has 20 employees.

Founders Christian Janson-Wiklund and Niclas Nordin will remain as minority owners and Christian Janson-Wiklund will continue as CEO.

"We are very impressed with the work Christians and Niclas have done together with the employees who have made Nino Labinteriör one of the leading players in their segment and we look forward to continuing to develop the company together," says Anders Längnäs at Screen Capital.

"We are happy and feel very confident with Screen Capital as the new majority owner of the company. Their experience, entrepreneurial spirit and not least long-term perspective give Nino Labinteriör fantastic opportunities to continue its geographical expansion and will make a big positive difference for employees and all our customers futurewise," says Christian Janson-Wiklund.
